If you are eligible, the benefit will take effect on the day after receipt of your application at the CRPN, and no earlier than the date you become entitled to this benefit.

On receipt of the application, a letter will be sent with the list of supporting documents requested; these supporting documents must be sent within a period of two years from the effective date of the benefit.

The personal data saved from your responses will undergo computer processing by the CRPNPAC, as data controller, with a view to the settlement of your CRPN pension. In compliance with the European General Data Protection Regulation no. 2016/679/EU of 27 April 2016, and the French Data Protection Act no. 78-17 of 6 January 1978 amended, you have a right to obtain information, to access, rectification and erasure of your personal data, and a right to restrict the processing of your data. Furthermore, you have the right to define what happens to your data after you die. You can exercise these rights with the Data Protection Officer	Signature of the CRPNPAC at: protection.donnees@crpn.fr . If, after having contacted the Data Protection Officer, you feel that your data protection rights have not been respected, you can send a complaint to the CNIL. Anyone found guilty of fraud or false declarations with a view to obtaining or attempting to obtain undue advantages is punishable by a fine and/or imprisonment (Articles 313-1, 441-1 and 441-7 of the French Criminal Code).
